PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Stars and Stripes was adopted as the flag of a new nation on June 14, 1777, by the founding fathers. They saw that its symbolism was fitting for a nation dedicated to the principle that all men are created equal and that they enjoy as inalienable, their rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and;

WHEREAS, the United States, in the many years since the Revolutionary War, has been a symbol of the unity and solidarity of our democracy and an emblem of freedom to the oppressed peoples of the earth, and;

WHEREAS, all of us have a duty to pledge anew on each anniversary of Old Glory's adoption, our faith to the principles for which it stands;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 11-17, 1967, as-- in South Dakota, and urge our citizens to show the flag at their homes and places of business during this week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 6th day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.

NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR
